

Toonzi Custom Zin 2015

STORY

Toonzi started as a nickname and turned into a family business designing custom t-shirts in a small Midwest town. A new generation continues the family tradition, this time creating custom wines. Over the years, Toonzi has become a symbol of pride, family, the love of music, life, and happiness. We invite you to share in this tradition. Pull the cork, turn up the volume, and taste the Toonzi.

VINEYARDS

Situated in the heart of California at the confluence of the Consumnes and Mokelumne Rivers, the Lodi/Woodbridge region enjoys a Mediterranean climate, with warm dry summers, cool moist winters, and distinctive sandy soils which makes for ideal growing conditions. Grapes have always been a part of the local landscape, growing wild along the riverbanks. The first vineyard was established in 1850 and over the next century vineyards and wineries began sprouting up throughout the Lodi region. In 1986 Lodi wines were recognized for their unique quality and given a credibility boost when the Lodi Appellation (American Viticulture Area) was approved.

TASTING NOTES

Nose boasts aromas of fresh cherries and plums. The palate gives way to flavors of raspberry and blackberry, with hints of smoke, cocoa and raisin. Well balanced and has a soft and smooth finish. You can enjoy this Zin on its own, or try with barbecue pork, grilled lamb chops, or a piece of dark chocolate.
